Writ Petition No. 489 (M/S) of 2003-

Pankaj Singh Dasila ---------- Petitioner

Versus

State of Uttaranchal---------- Respondent

Hon'ble M.M. Ghildiyal J.

Heard Sri K.N.Joshi learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Standing Counsel.

The petitioner has appeared in the High School examination conducted in the year 2002. When the result was declared he got 41 marks in social science, 54 marks in Sanskrit and 66 marks in mathematics. He was expecting more marks in the aforesaid subjects. Consequently he prayed for scrutiny in the aforesaid papers. The learned counsel for the petitioner has stated that he has not received the result of scrutiny though one year has elapsed. By means of this writ petition the petitioner has prayed to produce the copies/records of the above subjects only on the grounds that he was hoping more marks in the aforesaid papers. The prayer cannot be accepted merely on the ground that a candidate was expecting more marks; the High Court cannot direct the respondent-authority to produce the record or to evaluate the answer books. However, the respondent-authority is directed that if the result of scrutiny has not been declared till date the same shall be declared within one month from the date of production of certified copy of this order.

With these observations the writ petition is disposed of finally.
